

ST GEORGE'S SOCIETY OF NEW YORK

TEA & SHOW IN WASHINGTON

FRIDAY, JANUARY 29TH - SUNDAY, JANUARY 31ST 2010

29th JANUARY - TOUR & TEA AT BRITISH AMBASSADOR'S RESIDENCE

Amanda Downes, the British Embassy's Social Secretary, will lead a private tour of the Ambassador's residence, designed by Sir Edwin Lutyens and built in 1928.

The tour will be followed by tea at the residence.

30TH JANUARY - CORCORAN GALLERY & DINNER AT THE DC COAST

Viewing of the "From Turner to Cézanne" exhibit at the Corcoran Gallery featuring 53 major works of art on loan from the National Museum of Wales seen together in the United States for the first time. Dinner on Saturday night at DC Coast, 1401 K Street, NW.

Weekend Package:

$200 for members / $250 non-members (includes donation to Society)

Fee includes: residence tour and tea, shuttle service to and from embassy, the exhibit and dinner at DC Coast.

Travel to DC and hotel accommodation not included. Ask about the specially-priced hotel rooms at the Capital Hilton Hotel, 1001 16th Street, NW, which the Society is holding.

To reserve a space, secure a room or for more information

Email anna.titley@stgeorgessociety.org or call 212-682-6110